

Bennett Griffin Employment Club

BG Services

Bennett Griffin's team of employment law specialists have everyday first hand experience of the difficulties employers have in keeping up with, and understanding, the ever changing world of employment law.

Our Employment Club which meets quarterly over breakfast offers a service whereby we can keep our clients and associates up dated with new developments, new case law and new legislation in the pipeline on a regular basis, conveniently and at a low cost. Part of each meeting is also devoted to an open forum where members raise any employment issues they would like to discuss and share their experiences with other members.

Who should attend?

Anyone wanting to keep up to date with legal developments and refresh their knowledge in these key areas of the law
